Dear Mr. Izzi,

Thank you for renewing your membership with the ACFE. You are one of more than 75,000 members reducing business fraud worldwide.

We understand your need for information and resources unique to your profession. Here are just a few ways to make the ACFE work for you:

- Online Resources — Post questions to gain insight from one of our dedicated forums, locate a local Chapter or find employment information in the virtual Career Center.
- Anti-Fraud Training — Participate in one of many webinars, training events, conferences or visit the virtual Bookstore for ACFE-recommended books, manuals, self-study products and resources where you can apply your member discounts.
- Networking Opportunities — Connect and collaborate with anti-fraud professionals all over the world either face-to-face at conferences and seminars or online via targeted discussion forums or social media. Exchange ideas, solve problems, develop valuable career connections and gain new insights from other anti-fraud professionals who share your interests and business concerns.
- Member Exclusive Publications — Fraud Magazine®, a bimonthly publication devoted to insightful articles on fraud examination and The Fraud Examiner, a monthly e-newsletter.
- Continuing Professional Education — Fulfill your (CPE) requirements for the CFE or other designations with more than 70 annual learning events or more than 45 self-study courses.

Be sure to visit your member account at ACFE.com and update your contact information and preferences to receive timely fraud-related product and event information. If we can assist you further, call a Member Services Representative at (800) 245-3321 or +1 (512) 478-9000 or email MemberServices@ACFE.com.

Sincerely,

Ross Pry, CFE
Director of Membership
